Agency To War On Corruption To Be Set Up

President Reaffirms Faith In McGrath, Frank McKinney

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today promised what he called continued drastic action to clean house in the government. He indicated he will set up a special agency to fight corruption, possibly tomorrow or Saturday.

Allowing himself to be quoted directly at one point on the scandals in the tax collecting and some other agencies, Mr. Truman told a news conference:

"Wrongdoers have no house with me no matter who they are or how big they are."

In response to questions, the President said he has no plans to fire Attorney General J. Howard McGrath or Democratic National Chairman Frank McKinney.

Several Republican members of Congress have demanded the dismissal of McGrath as a result of disclosures in the house investigation of tax scandals.

Chairman King (D-Calif.) of the house group has publicly said he believes T. Lamar Caudle, assistant attorney general in charge of the tax division, was unfaithful to his public trust.

Mr. Truman fired Caudle last month. McKinney has come under fire because of the disclosure that he made a $68,000 profit on a $1,000 investment in a tractor firm headed by a man whose wartime government ordnance contracts were sharply criticized by Mr. Truman, then a senator.

Mr. Truman's news conference, always well-attended, drew an even heavier than usual attendance of reporters who anticipated he might announce some dramatic action in connection with the newest disclosures.

When the subject came up, the President declared with firm emphasis that his administration always has acted swiftly to eliminate wrongdoers from its ranks and will continue to do so.

He said his administration did exactly this, through its loyalty boards, in the case of Communists who were found to be working for the government.

Says Caudle Was Known These were brought to trial and convictions were obtained by the attorney general, just as they should have been, despite a great deal of ballyhoo to the contrary, the President said.

He declared that the public officials recently fired—including Caudle—all were being investigated by the executive branch of the government before their names turned up in congressional investigations.

He said the administration was wise to Caudle, who has been accused of taking favors from persons involved in tax difficulties with the government, long before such charges were made by the house ways and means subcommittee investigating the tax scandals.

Caudle's resignation would have been asked even without the committee's intervention, the President added.

A reporter expressed surprise at this, recalling that McGrath, who was Caudle's boss, told the house investigators only last Tuesday that he personally never had any suspicions against Caudle.

Runaway Truck Causes Damage In Lisbon

Smashes Gas Station, Three Cars; Uninjured Driver Is Fined

LISBON—A business tractor-trailer loaded with 30 tons of fuel steel crashed into three cars here at 2:45 p.m. Wednesday and wiped out a pump island at an east end gas station as it overturned and caught fire.

No one was hurt although the tractor and an East Liverpool sedan were demolished.

The driver, William C. Anderson, 56, of Killbuck, near Wooster, was fined $50 and costs on a reckless driving charge by Mayor Kenneth Hines shortly after the crash. Arrested by Officer Leon Zahndt, he pleaded guilty.

Anderson told police he "lost his brakes" on the hill above the Canton bridge at the west end of town. His outfit free-wheeled onto the weight-restricted one-lane span and raced through town for the mile length of Lincoln Way (Route 30) before upsetting at Con's Service station.

Had Just Left Car The middle trailer crushed a 1951 4-door sedan owned by H. D. Potts, 47, of East Liverpool. A salesman for the Keyes Co., he had left the car only a moment before to enter the station.

Two other cars were damaged at the Jefferson St. traffic light as Anderson ran the gamut of the business district.

A 1948 2-door sedan driven east by Stephen Corfee, 26, of RD 4, got a glancing blow on the left rear fender and bumper while stopped for the light. Corfee is a Mullins employee.

A 1949 2-door sedan operated by Ray Hempstead, 36, was clipped on the left front fender as he turned west onto Lincoln Way from Jefferson.

Police Chief Dalton Pike, waiting at the Square to escort a funeral, saw the runaway go by and estimated its speed at over 60 miles per hour.

Anderson said he intended to continue east on Lincoln Way to let his speed wear out, but a moving van coming north on Route 30 blocked the road and he had to make the 90-degree turn at Jackson St.

The trailing four-wheeler whipped into the island, knocking out two pumps, a rack of oil and a neon sign. Glenn Conn, station manager, said he couldn't estimate the damage.

Oddly, the four-wheeler remained upright while the semi and tractor were wheels in the air.

3 Persons Hurt In Area Traffic

Eliseo Garza, 28, Of Leetonia Injured

One person was hospitalized and two others were slightly hurt as the result of four highway traffic accidents which occurred in this district Wednesday and today.

Eliseo Garza, 28, of Leetonia, a Mexican laborer, was admitted to Salem City Hospital at 8 p.m. Wednesday, apparently the victim of a traffic mishap of which city police and State Highway Patrolmen have no report.

Details Scarce He is in fairly good condition today after being treated for bruises about the chest and a lacerated hip. Hospital authorities have been unable to find out details of the accident as the man does not speak English.

Two truck-tailers driven by Robert Thompson, 20, of RD 1, Leavenworth, Pa., and Merritt Christy, 32, of Rittman, O., sideswiped at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday on Route 46 one-half mile north of Columbiana. Christy sustained minor bruises of the left arm and was not treated.

Trucks Collide No one was injured in the side-swipe collision of two other truck-trailers at 11:45 p.m. Wednesday on Route 46, one-half mile north of the Mahoning County line. The trucks were driven by Louis Ruhmen, 26, of Akron and Harold Switzer, 41, of Lansing, Mich.

At 12:15 a.m. today cars driven by Steve Yakubek, 18, of 665 Prospect St. and a Cleveland man whose full name was not given, sideswiped on Route 14, a mile west of Washingtonville. Yakubek sustained bruises on the knees and right hand and was treated at the scene.

Texas Ace Gets 4 Of 13 Red Planes

U. S. Jet Pilots Score Biggest Air Victory Against Communists

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—American Sabre jet pilots won history's biggest all jet victory today. They bagged 13 Communist MIGs, probably knocked down two others and damaged one in two slashing air battles over North Korea.

Four of the MIGs went down before the blazing guns of America's hottest jet ace, Maj. George A. Davis, Jr., of Lubbock, Tex. In 16 days Davis has bagged 12 planes, including nine MIGs.

On the ground, a series of minor battles flared today as Allied infantrymen carried the war to the Reds for the second time in 24 hours.

The Fifth Air Force said none of the Sabre jets was shot down, but one ran out of fuel, caught fire and crashed. A helicopter rescued the pilot.

Heavily outnumbered Sabres knocked down four MIGs and damaged one in a morning battle over Sinanju in Northwest Korea.

Nine more MIGs were destroyed in the afternoon. Pilots reported two probable.

Sixty-four Sabres were matched against 145 MIGs in the two battles.

Davis bagged two planes in each fight. "Yeah, I went up twice today," he said. "We were just north of the Sinanju river when we saw a flight of about 50 MIGs. I just led my twelve planes into the middle of them."

In the peace talks at Munsan the Allies today demanded the Red's guarantee there would be no "death march" of Allied prisoners in Korea.

"No progress of any sort" was reported by a true subcommittee on prisoners, but spokesmen for both sides indicated another subcommittee might soon break a 17-day deadlock on how to police an armistice. They didn't get anywhere today.

569 Filipinos Typhoon Victims

Storm Turns Back In Central Philippines

MANILA (AP)—The death toll from a typhoon which swept across the Central Philippines Monday rose to 569 as the same storm doubled back today to strike the islands again.

The Weather Bureau forecast the center of the storm would strike Friday on the west coast of Luzon Island about 100 miles north of Manila. Torrential rains stricken Manila today.

A second typhoon, coming in from the east, seemed so much the weather bureau said it probably would just graze the east coast of Luzon.

This afternoon the center of the typhoon was 200 miles southwest of Manila. The second storm was 500 miles due east of the city.

The Red Cross and mayors of Leyte towns reported 457 people were killed on the island by the storm and by landslides. Torrents of muddy earth cascaded over coastal villages at the height of the storm.

The storm left 150,000 homeless and caused untold millions in property damage.

Water Tank Collapse Floods Town, Kills 4

TUCUMCARI, N. M. (AP)—A 250,000-gallon water tank collapsed today, killed four persons and caused damage estimated in millions.

Giving way with a deep rumble, the tank loosed a flood through the business district about 4:30 a.m. The cause was not determined.

Water up to waist deep spread devastation over an area three blocks wide and, in a lessening degree as the distance grew, a quarter mile long.

Two business places, the city warehouse and about 35 homes, mostly of adobe (mud brick) were laid waste. Another establishment, a motor firm, was damaged by water.

Rescuers, including quickly mobilized national guardmen, recovered four bodies. There were no reports of any persons missing. The last to be found, a boy 3 or 4 years old, was under a 250-foot section of the tank.

The dead: Earl Elliott, about 60. A Mrs. San Miguel and her small son. Steve Gallegos, about 14.

Lausche's Signature Clears Way For Start Of Turnpike

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today signed legislation to authorize a financial contract for the $210,000,000 turnpike across northern Ohio.

The measure, which was passed by the Ohio legislature last week, authorizes the governor to execute a contract with the Federal Highway Administration for the construction of the turnpike.

The turnpike, which will be 100 miles long, will connect Cleveland and Cincinnati. It will be the longest turnpike in the country.

Lausche likely will sign the contract by the end of the year. The turnpike is expected to be completed by 1955.

The turnpike will be financed by a combination of federal and state funds. It will be operated by a private company.

The turnpike will be a major improvement in the state's highway system. It will provide a faster route between Cleveland and Cincinnati.

New Machine Computes 20,000 Times a Second

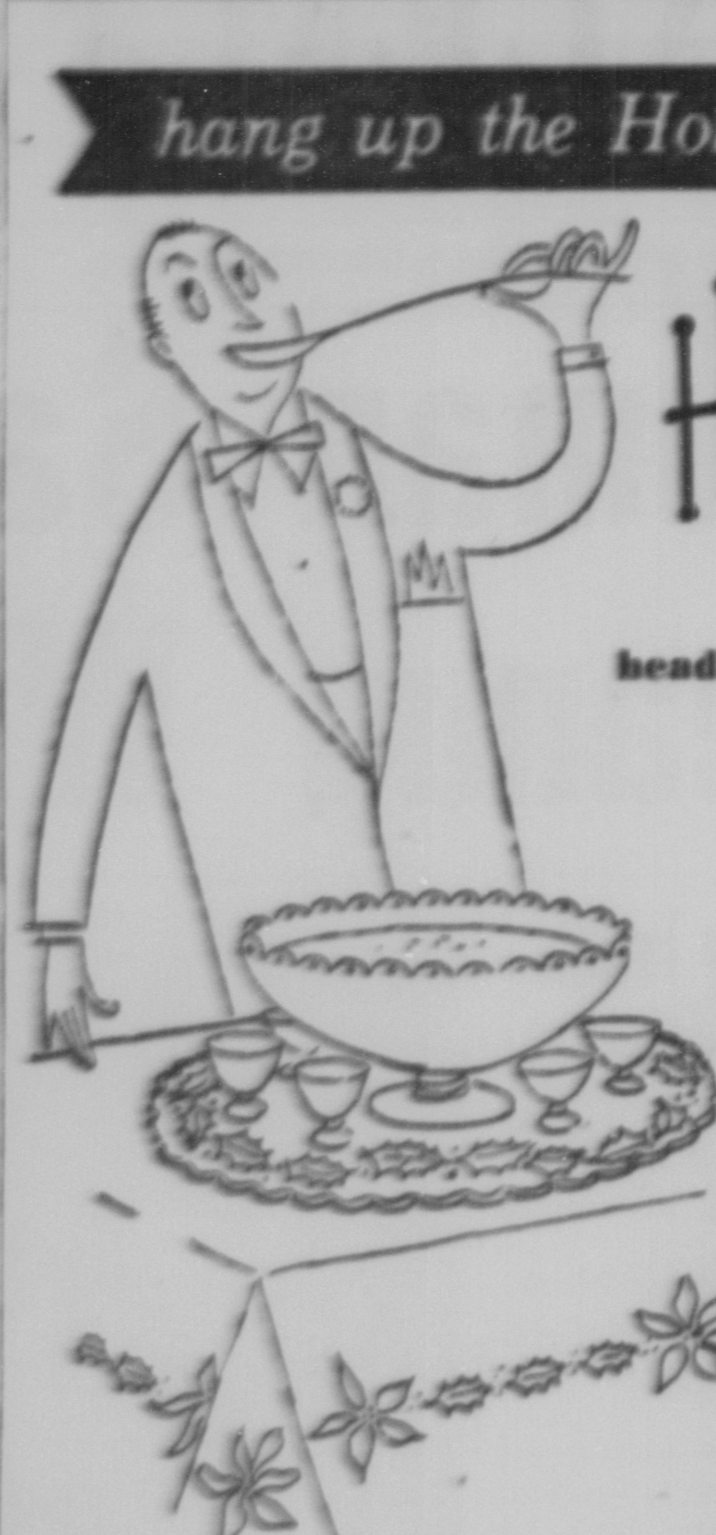

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A new computing machine which thinks 20,000 times a second was announced today at the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Institute of Radio Engineers joint meeting.

Thinking means that this machine can receive, remember and deliver a result on a digit at the almost inconceivable rate of 20,000 a second.

This speed makes it the first virtually instantaneous computing machine. It can figure and deliver instructions at an airport for flights of hundreds of hundreds of planes which might be approaching the airfield. The machine would plot a safe course for each, that is to keep them from getting scrambled.

The machine is named Whirlwind I. It was developed at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's digital computer laboratory in conjunction with the Office of Naval Research.

Up The Hill And Down Again

THE LATEST "interpretation" of the Ohio State speaker-screening rule by the board of trustees and President Bevis sounds like a recantation.

Responsibility for selecting speakers now has been tossed back to members of the faculty. If they have doubts, these can be shared with President Bevis, but otherwise the season is open, the same as before.

It was a question from the instant the trustees asserted their decision to make Dr. Bevis responsible for the character of speakers on the campus whether over-excited teachers and professional bleeders for academic freedom would be able to make the trustees back down. They were up against a powerful lobby—vastly more powerful than any lobby which ever asserted itself on the other side of this ticklish issue.

And there should be no mistake about the issue. It is whether professional educators can be made answerable to the public for what they teach, or whether they are a law unto themselves and can teach anything they please. It is whether or not tax-supported schools, if they happened to be dominated by teachers who want to overthrow the society in which they live could be turned into forms of revolution.

The Ohio State trustees, challenged to assert themselves on that proposition, ordered the president of Ohio State to accept responsibility for the type of speakers using the Ohio State campus. The issue was joined. The trustees' order was interpreted and re-interpreted. Now it has been interpreted in a way which, barring further interpretation, can mean only that the trustees, having marched up the hill, have marched back down again for reasons which had better not be left to the imagination.

Someone Mention Morals?

WHETHER OR NOT the Senate investigators who held hearings on the Taft-Ferguson campaign in Ohio issue a report, organized labor obviously intends to continue its smear campaign against Senator Taft.

The union line being followed by C.I.O. and laid down officially for A.F.L. is that Senator Taft and his friends are immoral because they put on an aggressive campaign in 1950 and thereby beat Joe Ferguson.

The bulk of their immorality can be traced to the undeniable fact that it took money to offset the giant spending of C.I.O., the national and state Democratic organizations and whatever other organizations were interested in beating Taft.

In other words, it is politically immoral to try to fight on even terms with the coalition which has been in control of Washington since the early Thirties. Since this curious viewpoint is certain to bob up in the national election in 1952, its significance should be grasped now.

There simply is no place in the coalition's thinking for two-party government. The opposition is intolerable interference with the plans of the government in power, even when the government in power offers voters a candidate with no visible qualifications.

On The Brink Of A Discovery

ONE OF THE ablest of high-echelon union executives, David J. McDonald of United Steel Workers, made a significant statement to a convention of C.I.O. delegates in Cleveland last week.

McDonald said the Taft-Ferguson campaign in Ohio had taught C.I.O. political strategists that their ideas about influencing people were wrong. Then he pointed out that 90 per cent of Americans think of themselves as being in the middle class. In other words, they don't get the hang of the kind of proletarian politics imported from the old world. They are not interested in class warfare.

If Mr. McDonald has thought this thing through, he is on the brink of a discovery. Class warfare in the old world was inevitable. People who thought like Karl Marx, because they knew no other way to think, would be dumfounded by the classlessness of the United States. They would think this was heaven.

In this country, the apprentice can become the boss. There is an aristocracy of ability which outranks the aristocracy of birth and the aristocracy of wealth. Furthermore, the man who works with his hands may and often does make better wages than the man who works with his brain. There is no proletariat.

Labor leaders, themselves, take pride in belonging to the middle class, which in America includes everybody who wants to claim membership. It never happened before in history. There is no precedent for it in the class warfare of the old world, a fact which was still hamstringing the C.I.O. as recently as 1950.

Universal Training

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

Poses Tough Problem For Congress

WASHINGTON BATTLE LINES are now being drawn for the showdown which is coming up early in the second session of the 82nd Congress on universal military training.

Proponents of the measure feel that the time has never been more ripe to get a UMT plan on the books. Most people, they reason, now believe that if the U.S. had had such a program after World War II the effects of Korea would not have been nearly so severe a jolt and that the country would have been far more ready for it.

Proponents feel that much of the organized resistance to it from church, educational and pacifist groups, labor unions and women's clubs have crumbled in view of the long outlook for tension with Soviet Russia.

In spite of this outlook, however, UMT is far from being a dead cinch for passage. First, it's going to be a presidential election year. And a tremendous block of voters, mostly among the nation's mothers, are against any universal training programs. This will make many congressmen think twice before voting for it.

And the traditional opposition against it is not as disorganized as is thought. A questionnaire sent out by the American Legion several months after the start of the Korean fighting to all of the groups who had opposed universal military training bills before Congress before Korea shows only a small change of sentiment.

SUCH STRONG LABOR organizations as the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the International Association of Machinists voiced their continued objections to UMT.

So did some of the more outspoken women's groups, such as the National Women's Christian Temperance Union. The Friends Committee, the Quaker group, reaffirmed their stand against it.

All of these organizations, politically powerful organizations when taken all together, will make their voices heard again. And congressmen will continue to listen.

The biggest break in the ranks of the opposition is among educational organizations. Even before Korea the important National Education Association gave up their traditional stand against UMT in a resolution saying that the organization thought it was up to Congress to decide whether or not the country needed it. Many individual leading educators have also not only reversed themselves on universal training but are now actively supporting it.

In fact, one of the authors of the plan which Congress will have to consider is a leading educator, Dr. Karl T. Compton, chairman of the board of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

By and large UMT proponents have taken heart from current favorable conditions for its passage and plan to redouble efforts to sell it to the people.

The American Legion, for one, will launch a full-dress campaign. The former national commander of the Legion, Erle Cocke, who devoted most of his administration in the Legion to selling UMT, has been appointed a special assistant to Anna Rosenberg in the Dept. of Defense to help sell Congress on the plan.

IF THE KOREAN fighting has stopped and the international situation gets no worse than it is right now the chance for passage of the UMT plan will be best.

UMT is essentially a peacetime plan. It drains off the supply of young men, and, according to plan under consideration, gives them six months training. These youths cannot go into combat.

If the Korean fighting goes on unabated and the chances of war elsewhere appear greater than they are the need for more regular men in the services will increase.

This will mean that there probably will not be enough men available for an UMT program's start. The young men will all have to be drafted.

Based on the present outlook, if the plan is passed by Congress this session a small program involving only 60,000 boys will be started next summer.

The plan under consideration is the one drawn up under direct authority of Congress itself. It was prepared by the National Security Training Commission, a group set up especially for that purpose.

The law which set up the commission also says that bills covering the commission's recommendations must be reported out of the military committees of both houses within 45 legislative days after Congress convenes in January.

Kindly Pay Attention

By TRUMAN TWILL

THE TALK turned to psychology and what psychologists may make clear sometimes about motives for human action.

Someone suggested that the fundamental motive must be to find some basis for being noticed, because everything figures out world would be an impossible place to live in.

Even the people who sacrifice themselves for others undoubtedly do so because it makes them noticeable. Martyrs have the same motive. If the only thing that made human beings feel superior were to put other human beings at a disadvantage, the world would be an impossible place to live in.

Anyone can see with half an eye there is no shortage of characters driven relentlessly by their ambition to show up the weaknesses of the other fellow. That kind of ambition can account for everything from a Genghis Khan to the burglar who breaks into burglar-proof houses.

Certainly it can account for the kind of person who always is ready to pounce on the other fellow's error and to call it to attention in a loud voice. And for the kind that always gloats over an antagonist's discomfiture.

It can account for the men who lord it over their wives, and it can account just as readily for men who get heckled by women who have discovered they can get away with it.

It accounts for the extraordinary zeal with which persons who have nothing really important on their minds tie into issues and projects of no importance, to try to call attention to themselves.

It can account for the boy who shows off on his bicycle in front of the new girl in the neighborhood, and it can account for the beauty queen who struts half-naked in front of an audience of leering males who otherwise would have to pay their way into a burlesque.

It accounts for the squares who wave at television cameras, the queer hats worn by women and workers who organize trouble to remind the boss they are still there and still behaving like human beings.

It accounts for the Stork Club's success, the testimonial dinner, babies squalling in their cribs, feathers in an Indian headdress, the medals on Gen. Vaughan's chest and memberships in exclusive clubs.

It accounts for dark glasses, pseudonyms, bodyguards, exclusive clubs, neckties that glow in the dark, the perfume industry and the Hollywood mufflers.

If there is anything in human behavior it cannot account for, no one present was able to think of it while the talk was about psychology and what psychologists eventually about human behavior. Surely, the thing people dread most, next to death before they're ready, is obscurity in life. Like Thornton Wilder's little girl in "Our Town," who was given one day of her life to live over and was miserable because no one noticed her, all of us are happiest when we escape obscurity, if only for an instant.

A Letter From The Forgotten War

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON MAYBE THE developments in the tax scandals here are the big news of the day, but somehow the copy of a letter that came in today seems to have in it the real news of our times. It's the story of a boy, orphaned since the age of three, raised in a children's home in Cincinnati and, now 18 years old, enlisted in his country's service and fighting in Korea. His name is David Fry and he writes to Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ulmer of Cincinnati, who used to give parties for the boys at the home and who apparently are the only persons writing to him. Maybe it will remind other people how, in the safety of their own homes here in America they too perhaps have forgotten to write to encourage the troops in Korea.

This letter, written from a foxhole just a month ago, is a realistic description of what many young Americans are facing in Korea today.

"JUST A FEW LINES to tell you I am still alive. I have been in two attacks already but it will take more than Joe Chink to kill a good man. . . .

"I am in a foxhole writing this letter. The first time we went up on the hill, we came back with 79 out of 200 men. The second time we went up on that same hill we came back with 60 men out of 200, so you can see how lucky I have been.

"I am a medical aid man and I do not carry a gun. Once in a while I have to pick up a gun and kill a few Chinks but most of the time I am too busy fixing up men who are shot.

"I think we will pull off the hill in a day or two and I hope we do as I need the rest. They say a medic does not have a chance to come off the hill but so far I have been lucky.

"How have you been keeping yourself? Fine I hope. When I get back I will let you be the first to know because you are the only one writing to me. So I am going to find time to write to you.

"HOW ARE THE peace talks coming along . . . or is there any peace talks?

"The way things are over here I think they are not having any peace talks. I am in the glory happy 7th Cav. Regt., and we do most of the pushing. We are to make one more push and then the 5th Cavalry is going to take our places and we will go back in to rest for awhile. I hope the 5th Cav. does come up to take our place because I have not had any sleep for almost two weeks now.

"Have the town ready for me when I come home because I am going to do it up right. Say hello to all of the girls for me and any one else I know.

"Truly yours

"David

"P.S.—Write when you get time."

MOST OF THE BOYS in the children's home referred to went into the service before they were eighteen. They're getting another kind of schooling in Korea now under enemy's gunfire. They're not unlike tens of thousands of other boys who are waiting for the "cease fire" in Korea, wondering just what is the meaning of the sacrifice they have been asked to make.

Under the system of "rotation" those who do not come back can rejoice at their good luck but the purpose of their big risk is just as blank in the minds of most of them as it was when they went overseas. Again and again the problem of what the real objective of Korea has been or is haunts the minds of those Americans who really have not forgotten the war in the Far East.

Again and again, however, one meets people who tell each other to forget the war in Korea. The tendency to write it off as a "police action" instead of a major war fits in, to a certain extent, with the attitude of indifference that many Americans have adopted toward the fighting in Korea. But if officialdom here regards Korea as a side issue, American citizens who know any of the boys in Korea can't afford to do so. The letter from David Fry tells the story of lack of appreciation which is commonplace. It points up one of the collateral tragedies of the war itself.

P.S. The overseas address is David Fry, 7th Cavalry, AUO 291, Care Postmaster, San Francisco.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Acidity May Mean Serious Disease

A LOT of people seem quite confused about acid in the stomach and about what they call an acid condition of the system. Several have written for a discussion of too much acid in the system can be disposed of quite rapidly. The body has a remarkable method of keeping its system with just the right balance between acid and base or alkali.

These two other and when one seems to be getting the upper hand, the body produces more of the other. The result is that a true condition of too much acid in the system is quite rare.

It can occur in severe diabetes and some other things, but when it does, it is almost always associated with some severe general disease which requires special treatment wholly unrelated to the excessive amount of acid. Ordinarily, a person does not need to worry much about having too much acid in the system.

So far as the stomach is concerned, this organ contains cells which ordinarily manufacture hydrochloric acid which is necessary for digestion. Again, during health, the amount of hydrochloric acid is kept just about right.

In the presence of ulcers of the stomach and some other conditions, there may be too much acid; the absence of acid in the stomach requires some discussion.

It seems true in many cases that the failure to produce acid by the stomach cells is not serious because digestion goes on pretty well without it, though sometimes a doctor will give acid drops with the meals to aid digestion.

However, the absence of acid can be a sign of serious disease such as pernicious anemia, disease of the stomach itself, badly infected teeth, or some other disease process elsewhere in the body.

Consequently, it is not wise just to accept the absence of acid until after there has been a careful physical check-up and laboratory tests including tests of the blood and of the stomach itself in order to make sure that some serious disease is not responsible.

Both too much acid in the stomach and not enough acid are symptoms or signs which may or may not reflect a disease process. At any rate, when either is found, it is well not to ignore the finding without making sure.

Socialism in Turkey

ANKARA—While nobody hates the Russians more than the Turks, there is little realization of how completely socialized the Turkish economy is. Farms and most small businesses are privately owned.

But the government owns and operates all the major industries, including railways, coal mines and even the building which for centuries has housed the famous Istanbul bazaar.

The government is even building a new hotel which it hopes will attract many more tourists to Turkey. But the plan is to sell this property to a private operator, once it is built.

One of the major side-line efforts of Marshall Plan mission in Turkey has been to convince the government that it should do more to develop private industry, and divest itself of much of the 70 per cent of Turkish business which is now controls.

Battle Call

By HAL BOYLE

"The War Of The Codgers"

NEW YORK

ONCE UPON a future time a great war was declared. But this time the old men of both sides demanded:

"Why should the scarlet blood of youth be wasted? Why should young men in the flower of their promise die upon the battlefield to save us? Our course is about run anyway, and it won't make so much difference if we are lost. Send us into battle."

The young men thought that was a fine idea, too. It would be nice to stay home from war for a change. It had never happened in history before.

So both sides made an unofficial gentleman's agreement to summon only older men to arms. Thus began what was later known as "The War of the Codgers."

The first draft call was for men over 70. They made a fine, heart-stirring sight as they paraded through the streets in uniform, stamping their canes, bending to kiss their grandchildren farewell.

THEY FOUGHT their best. But they couldn't climb the hills, and the artillery was so noisy at night it kept them awake and wore down their strength.

At the end of six months the battle lines hadn't changed an inch. There were more soldiers in the hospitals than on the front. The rheumatism cases outnumbered the combat casualties 30-to-1. Six men over 80, convicted of desertion, said: "To hell with it."

And the people began to grumble: "What kind of a war is this? We're not getting anywhere?"

By another gentleman's agreement both sides then lowered the draft age to 60. Defense industries quit making canes and began grinding out bifocal glasses.

BUT IN ANOTHER six months the army hospitals were full of soldiers who had come down with heart attacks after climbing the hills. And the people complained: "Millions of pensions—but not a single victory? Is this warfare?"

So the draft age was lowered again—this time to 45. For the first time real infantry fighting developed. Yet after six months the hospitals again were overflowing—now with more ulcer victims than the bullet-wounded.

"WE'RE NOT a foot nearer peace—but we're galloping toward bankruptcy," the people jeered. All except the young men. They just looked more and more uneasy.

For they had seen the "War of the Codgers" become a war of the middle-aged.

One day a prisoner under 30 was taken. "I just sneaked along after my old man," he explained. "He's got varicose veins, and I just wanted to help him back if he couldn't make it. Well, yes, I was carrying a shotgun when you caught me. But I was just looking for quail. You know I wouldn't shoot at you fellows—why, I'm too young for the draft."

But the enemy commander didn't believe him. He flashed back word to higher headquarters:

"THE OTHER SIDE has broken the rules. They are slipping younger soldiers into the line. Are we going to stand for this?"

Soon both sides were putting younger volunteers into action. And soon after that the gentlemen's agreement collapsed completely.

The bugles in both lands blew for all boys over 18. And the young men shouldered their rifles and said, "We knew all along it was too good to be true."

They kissed their mothers and sweethearts—their wives and children and sisters—and marched in long columns toward the front.

The blood of youth again flowed in a scarlet tide. And the war became like any other war.

Teacher Workshops Planned For County

COLUMBUS—Four teachers' workshops were planned by the education committee of the Columbus County Education Association when it met Tuesday night with County Superintendent James L. McBride and Lavinia Ruff, assistant, at Lisbon.

The first will be held the night of Jan. 22 at Fairfield Centralized

School with "teaching social studies" as topic. Speakers will be Howard C. Alley of Youngstown, whose texts are used in the schools, and a representative of the book house which publishes the county's history-geography text.

Dates of the other three meetings are uncertain. One workshop on "recreation" will be held in Salineville in early March and one on "conservation" in New Waterford sometime in April. The fourth will be on "teaching art" and is set tentatively for April 22. The location will depend on the program.

McBride said he hopes to have the Binney-Smith Co. put on its 15-hour teacher training course. It would be held the afternoons and evenings of three consecutive days, probably in Lisbon. Members of the committee are Mrs. Irene Pickens of Knox, Miss Marney Dickey of New Waterford and Jack Baker of Salineville.

Clippers Invade Salem Friday Seeking Fifth Straight Win

Salem Inaugurates Cage Season; Columbiana Boasts Five Starting Lettermen

Homer Pyle's Columbiana Clippers will invade Salem Friday night to face the Salem High School Quakers in Salem's gym.

The Clippers will be searching for their fifth straight win of the season while the Quakers will be opening the 1951-52 basketball campaign.

The Pylemen have four victories to their credit, all over smaller schools. The Clippers have beaten Fairfield, New Waterford, New Springfield and North Lima.

The latest victory, a 57-52 win over Lima, was a close one as they held the losing five to 18 points in the first half and then were outscored in the terminal two periods as North Lima garnered 17 markers in each period.

COACH PYLE indicated his team will be out to get the Quakers tomorrow night since Salem's coach, John Cabas, is a resident of Columbiana and former coach in Clippertown. The Clipper mentor said his team would be somewhat at a disadvantage Friday when they would be playing in a much smaller gym than they have played this year.

Pyle, who is in his initial year as coach in Columbiana, will have a short lineup to pit against the Quakers taller boys. His tallest man is Bruce Miller, the 6'3" center, who played against Salem last year. He is one of seven lettermen back with Columbiana this season.

The other starters are Chuck Ramsey, Milt Powers, Jack Stephens and Don McBride. All are lettermen and McBride is a junior while the others are seniors.

RAMSEY STANDS AT 5'11", McBride is 5'9", Powers goes at 5'8" and Stephens ranges at 5'4", the smallest man on the floor. Powers is a constant scoring threat as is Miller. The two combined for 29 of 57 points in the North Lima game.

The other two lettermen are Dick Thomas, a 5'7" senior and Gary Sayers, also a senior who goes at 6'2". Pyle uses the latter when he needs height.

Two others who occasionally break into the lineup are Bob Corey, a 6-footer and Earl Hicks, 5'11" cager. Matt Powers, 5'8" junior, also is likely to see action Friday.

Tomorrow night's Reserve game will be a real tussle as the younger Clippers have also yet to taste defeat. The Columbiana Reserve outfit have licked the same opponents as their elders and will try for their fifth victory when they take the floor at 7:30. The varsity game is expected to get underway about 8:30.

SATURDAY NIGHT the Quakers will play host to the Youngstown South cagers. The game will start at 7:30 and the Reserves will meet the South Reserves at 7:30. Faculty Manager Fred Cope reminds fans that tickets for the South tilt will go on sale at 6 p.m. Friday. The season ticket sale will end at 6 Friday. Cope said a large number of season tickets were still unsold.

'Open House' Set For Tonight At High School

Coach Cabas Will Unveil Quakers

Coach John Cabas will unveil his second edition of Salem Quakers tonight when they display "Open House" at 7:35 in the high school gym with the public invited.

Completely rebuilding this year after losing eight senior cagers through graduation, Cabas has only one letterman from last season's 16-3 team and another player who saw a bit of varsity action.

THE SALEM MENTOR plans to carry a twelve-man varsity squad, which will include seven seniors, three juniors and a pair of sophomores, up from last year's Fresh outfit.

Working out as the first team at the present time are four seniors and a third-year cager. Jerry Ball, Benny Roelen, Bill Brelih and Wayne Harris are the four-year men while Eddie Votaw represents the juniors.

Ball, the letterman, stands an even 6' and still possesses the driving power which gained him recognition last season.

HARRIS EXPERIENCED some varsity action last year and will go at a forward position. He is a valuable rebounder as well as an excellent shot. Working with Harris will be 6'6" Bill Brelih. Brelih has been learning fast in the pivot area, according to Cabas who is greatly pleased with the progress of the lad. Harris, standing 6'2", and Brelih should be able to control the backboards a considerable part of the time for the Quakers.

Roelen, as Brelih, is up from the Reserves and will be entering his initial varsity game Friday night against the Clippers of Columbiana. Standing 5'9", Roelen was valuable last year with the Reserves and has shown a lot of promise in the past three weeks of practice.

ROELEN WILL work with Ball out front and Votaw will also be out on the 3-2 offense which the Quakers use. Coach Cabas also has been pleased with the work and progress of Votaw. Last year he played second team Reserve throughout the season, breaking into several Reserve games. The junior goes about 5'11" and is a good rebounder. He, too, will play his first varsity game.

Two other players who are likely to break into the lineup Friday are Jack Gottschling and Don Fife. Gottschling is a sophomore and is about 6' in height while Fife is a short 5'7" speedster in his senior year.

Maurice Simley and Bob Both, both 5'11" cagers, round out the senior candidates for the squad. The other players are Stan Cooley, 6' sophomore, Harry Davidson, 6' junior, and Jerry Mounts, 5'5" junior.

CABAS EXPECTS to see Mounts, with whom he is pleased. Gottschling, Cooley and Davidson in Reserve contention. The Quaker coach feels the experience will do the players more good and prepare them for their remaining years.

Cabas hopes a large number of parents, friends and followers turn out for the open house event tonight. The purpose of the affair is to relate Salem's team with the type of basketball Salem plays. The affair will give local fans a chance to view the Quakers before they open their season against Columbiana Friday night and Youngstown South Saturday night on the home floor.

Both, both 5'11" cagers, round out the senior candidates for the squad. The other players are Stan Cooley, 6' sophomore, Harry Davidson, 6' junior, and Jerry Mounts, 5'5" junior.

HIGH STEPPING BASKETBALL—Fans get a mixture of ballet dancing and basketball during the Worcester Tech-Fitchburg Teachers game at Worcester, Mass. Tech's Earl Bloom leaps high and Teachers' Ed McGraw seems to be missing a kick when both players get mixed in with a loose bouncing ball in the second period. The Engineers' Joe Fratino (left) stays away from high kicking player. Tech won, 76-50.

Portsmouth Mentor Won't Coach Next Year

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—Coach Chris Stefan of Portsmouth High School—which failed to win a football game this season—was told yesterday he won't be coaching next year.

But the board of education said he could remain at the school as a faculty member. Stefan, who came here last year, was paid $3,500. The board hinted it may go as high as $5,000 a year to get a coach who can return the Trojans to the winning column.

Stefan succeeded Bill Hess, now guard coach at Ohio State University. The Trojans played ten games this year, and lost all.

Bob Zupke coached seven Big Ten Conference football teams at Illinois.

Joe Medwick To Manage Florida League Team

Medwick succeeds Ben Chapman, who will go with the Cincinnati Reds as coach.

Medwick broke into the Majors in 1932 and played with the St. Louis Cardinals, the Brooklyn Dodgers, New York Giants, Boston Braves and the New York Yankees.

Tony Trabert, Ted Schroder Top Swedish Tennis Opponents

Expected To Capture Doubles In Interzone Davis Cup Finals

MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 10 (AP)—Tony Trabert and Ted Schroder virtually swept their Swedish opponents off the courts in the first two singles matches of the U. S.-Sweden Interzone Davis Cup final today and were expected to finish the job Friday by taking the doubles in similar convincing fashion.

TONY AND TED, whose attention for the singles over Victor Lindberg sound against American and Danish opponents, caused some surprise, each won their matches in straight sets from the Navy, crushed to give the U. S. a command—Sver Davidson, 6-2, 6-4, 9-7; and 6-2 lead. A victory in the then the veteran Schroder from Sweden will put the U. S. in the La Canada, Calif., storned over Lennart Bergelin, Sweden's No. 1 player, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4. Davidson and Bergelin will pair against Tony and Ted in the doubles.

A crowd of 7,000, somewhat short of Kooyung Stadium's capacity, saw the one-sided matches.

TRABERT DEFEATED Davidson in the opening match by staying in the backcourt and passing the net rushing Swede or forcing him into errors.

In three sets Tony scored 39 clean winners, almost all of them on passing shots down the side-line. Davidson had only 29 winners, 14 of them in the final set. Practically all of his were scored from the net on sharp volleys.

The match lasted an hour and one-half in a gusty wind. The sun finally popped out in the last game of the match.

Schroder played a superb game in crushing Bergelin. The match was played in bright sunshine and very little wind in contrast to the Trabert-Davidson affair.

Indicative of his superiority, Schroder scored 32 placements to Bergelin's 19 and served nine aces to none for the Swede. The match lasted only 52 minutes; the last set 15 minutes.

Cage Coach Resigns After Third Defeat

CIRCLEVILLE, O. (AP)—Richard West, 30, Circleville High School basketball coach, resigned today in the wake of three straight defeats for his team.

The Circleville board of education accepted his resignation in special session.

West, Ohio State University graduate and former Chillicothe High School star, cited the players' lack of interest in basketball as his reason for leaving.

He said "The boys have the ability to play better basketball but I haven't been able to get it out of them."

West submitted his resignation Saturday following his team's defeat the previous night by Columbus North, 66-31.

His team also suffered defeats at the hands of Chillicothe (47-39) and Columbus Aquinas (61-54).

During his first year as basketball coach at Circleville, in 1949, West's squad won the first championship in the school's history.

In his second year as coach, the Circleville squad lost six of its 16-game schedule.

Ross Disappears In Maryland

Believe Slay May Have Hopped Freight

BALTIMORE (AP)—George F. Ross, 25-year-old accused police officer slayer, disappeared from the scene of the slaying, leaving the most intense manhunt in Maryland history.

Two agents and state police officers said they were satisfied the slayer had hopped a freight train and left the area.

How he got out or where he went was anybody's guess.

A posse of 300 FBI men and 50 state troopers failed to flush him from the suburban countryside around Ellicott City where the search began late Monday night when Ross fired on two county police officers who surprised him sleeping in a car stolen in Ohio.

The only thing police were certain of was that Ross, wanted for the slaying of Cleveland traffic policeman Forrest L. Haas last Saturday, had been in the area. His fingerprints were found on a flashlight discovered in the woods Tuesday morning.

Police speculated that Ross could have hopped a coal car of a Baltimore and Ohio railroad train passing through the area, or that he could have hopped out.

Marguerite Higgins Is Chosen 'Woman Of Year' By Writers

BY DOROTHY ROE
(Associated Press Women's Editor)

AMERICAN Newspaperwomen have chosen one of their own as "Woman of the Year" for 1951. She is Marguerite Higgins, plucky and pretty foreign correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune, whose coverage of the Korean War brought her both national headlines and a Pulitzer prize.

More recently the pert, blonde Maggie has traveled around the world writing a series, "Around Russia's Curtain," authored a book, "War In Korea" and covered the United States on a lecture tour.

The only newspaper woman on the Korean battlefield, Maggie won international attention when, ordered to the rear for safety, she stood her ground with the announcement, "I'm here as a reporter, not as a woman."

IT IS INTERESTING to note that in the poll of women's editors of Associated Press newspapers, runner-up for the title of outstanding woman of the year was Princess Elizabeth, whose recent American tour made miles of headlines.

Miss Higgins was born in Hong Kong of an American army officer father and a French mother, went to schools in France and England and wound up with honors at the University of California and Columbia University's school of journalism.

She joined the Herald Tribune in 1942, and became a foreign correspondent in 1944, worked in the London and Paris bureaus, moved on to Austria with the 7th Army during the closing days of World War II and soon afterward was made head of the Berlin bureau.

When the Korean War broke out she made a beeline from the Tokyo bureau to the battlefield, where for 23 weeks she reported all aspects of the fighting, undergoing dangers and hardships of the front.

Other new names show up among the top women voted outstanding in their respective fields for 1951, from the standpoint of news value.

TOPS IN THE FIELD of sports is Maureen Connolly, 16-year-old winner of the National Women's Tennis Championship, a teen-ager who has provided the nation's sports writers with a fresh and inspiring new personality to brighten up their pages.

In literature, the vote goes to Rachel Carson, author of the best-selling "The Sea Around Us." Judy Garland tops the list in the theater, for her sensational success in bringing vaudevilleville back to Broadway.

In the field of science, the editors have chosen Dr. Florence Sabin, one of three women doctors who were winners of the American Public Health Association's 1951 Lasker awards.

Now director of health for Denver, Dr. Sabin previously was the first woman on the faculty of Johns Hopkins medical school, first woman scientist on the staff of the Rockefeller Institute, first woman admitted to the National Academy of Scientists and first woman member of the American Association of Anatomists.

OTHERS NAMED as outstanding in their fields are:
Public affairs: Anna Rosenberg, assistant Secretary of Defense, now spearheading a drive for enlistment of 72,000 women in the armed services.

Radio: Talullah Bankhead, star of NBC's ambitious "Big Show." Music: Dorothy Kirsten, opera and concert star, who played in MGM's "The Great Caruso" this year and has just given a command performance in London on the occasion of the wedding anniversary of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip.

Movies: Judy Holliday, Academy Award winner for her performance in "Born Yesterday." Education: Margaret Clapp, president of Wellesley College.

Business: Tillie Lewis, West Coast tomato-canning queen.

Farm Groups Begin Program On Pastures

A Green Pastures program for Columbiana County has been launched by county committees representing several agricultural organizations, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent, at Salem.

Farmers who wish to enroll for 1952 are asked to send their names to the extension office in the Courthouse or the Columbiana Soil Conservation District office in the Farmers National Bank Building at Lisbon before Feb. 1.

Enrollment will meet in the Salem Masonic Temple on Feb. 17 to discuss pasture improvement and prepare pasture plans for their farms.

Started in New England states in 1947, the program aims at better pastures and gives recognition to farmers who show results. It will help farmers reduce feed costs through the use of pasture, hay and silage, Lower said.

The program is financed by contributions from milk distributors, farm supply dealers, farm organizations, banks, business groups and farmers.

County sponsors are the Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Production and Marketing Administration, Soil Conservation District, Hereford Breeders Association, National Farm Loan Association.

County Extension Advisory Committee, Farm Bureau, Veterans' Agricultural Classes, Production Credit Association, Dairy-men's Council, Grange, Farmers Home Administration and the County Agricultural Council.

Slippery Streets Cause Two Mishaps

Five vehicles were involved in the two city traffic accidents caused by slippery streets during the past 24 hours.

John Culler Jr. of Canton told police that as he was driving east on W. State St. at 7 p. m. Wednesday he swerved his truck-trailer to the left to avoid hitting a car operated by Donald M. Williams of M.C. 1, Salem, and skidding onto State St. from the Georgetown Rd.

The rear trailer of the outfit caught the Williams car, driving it into the rear of another auto driven by Wilmer E. Bentley of 460 Ohio Ave. The Bentley auto then crashed into the trailer.

Mrs. Bentley, passenger in her husband's car, complained of a backache after the mishap and was taken to the Central Clinic where she was examined and released.

Melvin Lipplatt of RD 4, Salem reported that a car driven by Raymond Sunderman, of RD 1, Salem, crashed into the rear of his auto at 6:35 a. m. today as he was stopper on W. State St. for the traffic light at Howard and State streets. Sunderman told the police his car skidded when he applied the brakes.

Breach of Contract Suit Resumes Today

LISBON—A law suit charging the Dacar Chemical Co. of East Liverpool with breach of contract in the sale of a dismantled tunnel kiln continued today in Common Pleas Court after A. N. Datesch of Mount Lebanon, Pa., treasurer, testified Wednesday that the plaintiff used a gun on him.

Datesch said John McQuillan of Dundee, Ill., and Attorney Don Smith of East Liverpool forced their way into the plant at gunpoint in November, 1950. "Make one move and I'll blow your brains," he quoted McQuillan.

A chemical engineering graduate of Princeton University, McQuillan claims he bought the dismantled kiln for $250 on June 6, 1950 and gave Datesch a $25 check on verbal agreement. He made six trips to East Liverpool but got the run-around each time, he said, and on Sept. 1, 1950 was told the deal was off.

McQuillan seeks $5,766, his estimate of the value of the kiln parts on the open market.

Statuettes Given Lisbon Grid Team

LISBON — Twenty-two members of Lisbon High School's football team were given statuettes at the Booster Club's public recognition banquet Wednesday night in American Legion Post 275. About 200 persons attended.

Presentation was made by Coach Edwin (Bud) Bucher, who guided the Blue Devils to seven wins in nine games and a share in the Tri-County League championship.

Special recognition was given the coaching staff—Jack Mills, Jerry Pauls, William McFerrer and Frank Solak. Radio sports-caster Don Gardner of Youngstown talked on football's challenge to youth. He was introduced by Graham (Pat) Kearney, toastmaster.

Dike Beede, football coach of Youngstown College, and Coach Wade Watts of East Liverpool were guests. Dinner was served by the Legion Auxiliary.

Cold Spell To Stay Here Another Day

The cold front which wrapped its icy tentacles about Salem Wednesday has gotten a tenacious grip and is expected to hang on for at least another day.

State Forecaster C. G. Andrus reports that all of Ohio and most of the eastern half of the country are shivering under the cold temperatures which, in some areas, may go down to zero tonight.

The Salem disposal plant reported that the mercury had fallen to 10 degrees above zero here last night. The mercury is expected to range around that point again tonight in this district.

Civil Defense Directors Vote Not to Deactivate

Salem's Civil Defense directors voted at a meeting Tuesday night not to deactivate the organization but not to spend any city funds on the program at this time.

The group decided to keep the organization intact as it stands in case of an emergency. Director Loren Early explained. The finance committee met with the defense directors and agreed with them that no outlay of money was necessary now, and funds should be saved for any future emergency.

East Palestine Man Fined After Mishap

Charles E. Faulkner, 30, of East Palestine was fined $100 and costs Tuesday by Mayor Harry M. Vincent when he pleaded guilty to being the hit-skip driver of the auto, which struck two other East Palestine youths early Sunday morning on Route 14 near Unity.

Faulkner was arrested when he went to the Salem State Highway Patrol barracks to claim his car which he had abandoned after the accident.

Jack Gillis, 19, and Richard Berresford, 21, were hit by the vehicle as they were walking along the highway to aid a companion, Richard Schreckengost, 20, also of East Palestine, whose car had left the road and overturned.

Faulkner's auto then went off the highway and into a ditch and he fled on foot. Faulkner told Mayor Vincent that he had been "dazed" by the accident and didn't know what he was doing.

Gillis sustained a fracture of the left leg and cuts about the face and head and was brought to Salem City Hospital. Berresford received bruises on the left leg.

Sweettooth Recipes For Christmas

REQUESTS for homemade Christmas cookies and candies from some of our readers lead straight to these two:

Lebkuchen (German Christmas Cookies)

- 2 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon allspice
- 1 cup unsifted molasses
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 1/2 cup chopped blanched almonds
- 1/2 cup chopped citron

Sift together first 6 ingredients. Beat molasses to boiling point and pour into large bowl for mixing. Add sugar. Cool. Beat egg. Add lemon rind. Gradually stir in flour mixture. Add almonds and citron. Chill overnight.

Roll dough 1/4-inch thick into a 1/2-inch by 1/2-inch rectangle on greased cookie sheet with lightly greased rolling pin. Cut into 1/2-inch by 1/2-inch squares. Bake 12 to 15 minutes in a preheated moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.).

While cookies are hot, quickly brush tops with confectioner's sugar and water using No. 3 cup sifted confectioner's sugar with 4 teaspoons water. Cut around each bar with a pointed knife, remove to wire cooler. There is tightly closed tin box. These cookies improve with age as does color.

Fruit Fudge

- 2 cups sugar
- 2 squares chocolate, grated or 1/2 cup cocoa
- 1/2 cup light brown corn syrup
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup chopped filberts

Combine all ingredients except butter, vanilla and nuts. Cook slowly, stirring occasionally until it forms a soft ball in cold water or reaches 236 degrees F. on candy thermometer. This requires about five minutes after it boils.

Remove immediately from heat, add butter and vanilla. Cool until lukewarm, then beat until creamy. When it begins to turn color, stir in the nuts and turn into buttered pans. Cool and cut into squares.

- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
- 3 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon minced onion
- few drops Tabasco sauce
- 2 hard-boiled eggs
- Melba toast rounds

To prepare avocado, cut into halves, remove seed and skin and force through sieve. Mix with salt, garlic salt, lemon juice, onion, Tabasco sauce, 2 dried eggs. Spread on Melba toast rounds. Force 1 egg through small fine sieve with a spoon and sprinkle on omelets for garnish. Makes about 1 cup spread.

MANHATTAN CHOWDER

Honey Fruit Cake Is pretty and Tasty

DECK the halls, the old card says, and since it is the season to be jolly, you'll want to deck your tables, too, with the prettiest and most delicious kind of decorations — fruit cakes.

This one's a honey of a cake, you'll discover, because it needs

UNCOOKED HONEY FRUIT CAKE

- 1 cup seeded raisins

- 1 cup seedless raisins
- 1 cup golden raisins
- 1 cup dried apricots
- 1 quart fruit juice
- 2 cups cooked prunes
- 1 cup cut candied cherries
- 1 cup cut candied pineapple
- 1 cup finely cut citron

- 1 cup cut candied orange peel
- 1 cup butter or margarine
- 1 cup honey
- 1 cup confectioner's sugar
- 1 T grated orange rind
- 1 T grated lemon rind
- 1 t salt
- 1/4 t mace
- 1 t allspice
- 1/4 t cloves
- 2 t cinnamon
- 2 t vanilla extract
- 4 cups zwieback crumbs
- 6 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 1 cup roasted unblanched almonds

Rinse and drain raisins and apricots. Place half of them in large bowl. Heat fruit juice to boiling, pour over fruits, cover and let stand until cool. Drain. Reheat fruit juice, pour over remaining half of fruits as before. Drain. (Most of juice will be absorbed by dried fruits).

Slice apricots. Cut prunes from pits and chop. Combine all dried fruits, candied fruits, citron and peel. Cream butter; blend in honey, sugar, rinds, salt, spice and flavoring. Mix with fruits and let stand 2 hours or more.

To prepare crumbs, put through food chopper twice using fine knife, or roll fine. Blend into fruit mixture, together with finely chopped almonds. Pack in, to waxed paper-lined casseroles (two 6-inch and one 8-inch or four 6-inch casseroles.) Chill 48 hours or more before cutting. Makes 8-pound cake.

Practical Hints For Turkey Cooking

FOR best results, roast your turkey slowly. That is the exclusive advice to this column from Mabel Stegner. Born in South Dakota, now a well-known home economics consultant, Miss Stegner has more practical hints for roasting the Christmas turkey.

She thinks today's turkeys, bred and grown under scientific conditions, are much superior to the big 18 to 20-pound birds she remembers at home. The small Beltsville turkeys, weighing 6 to 8 pounds now available, are a blessing for small families. She believes in low temperature roasting, 300 degrees F. for large turkeys, 325 degrees for small ones, rather than the old-fashioned, high temperatures.

"Most people cook their turkeys far too long," she insists. "Two hours is plenty for small turkeys and 3 hours for medium-sized ones. Naturally the turkey browns more slowly when roasted at a low temperature, but help it along with my pet browning glaze made by blending 1/2 cup softened fat with one tablespoon kitchen bouquet.

"Sometimes I add a bit of herb seasoning to it for an unusual touch. I rub this mixture all over the turkey before cooking. The fat melts as the turkey cooks and keeps the skin moist and soft."

Here is Miss Stegner's recipe for luscious giblet gravy:

Giblet Gravy

(Makes 4 cups gravy)

1 quart water
turkey giblets and neck
1/2 cup flour
1 cup cold water

New Idea For Pop Corn

POP CORN BARS

1 cup sugar
1/3 cup white corn syrup
1/3 cup water
1/4 cup butter
3/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon vanilla
3 quarts Jolly Time popped corn

Put sugar, corn syrup, water, butter and salt in a saucepan and cook, stirring until the sugar is dissolved. Continue cooking without stirring (270 F.) until syrup forms a brittle ball in cold water. Add vanilla and stir only enough to mix it through the hot syrup. Place the popped corn in a bowl large enough for mixing. Pour the cooked syrup slowly over the popped corn and mix well. Wet the hands slightly and transfer mixture to a flat cake pan. Press mixture into a sheet cake and cut into bars with a wetted knife.

For a change of taste add nuts, candied cherries, gum drops or raisins to the popped corn before combining it with the syrup.

2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons kitchen bouquet.

Bring water to boil and add giblets and neck. Let cook slowly until tender, about 40 minutes. Drain off broth and add water to make 3 cups if necessary. Mince giblets and meat from neck and add to broth. Combine flour, cold water and salt by shaking in a tightly closed jar.

Add gradually to broth and cook, stirring constantly, until gravy thickens and boils. Add kitchen bouquet. Drain fat from roasting pan and return 1/2 cup to pan. Pour hot giblet gravy into roasting pan and stir until brown drippings are taken up.

Hamsters, small mammals widely used in laboratory research, "are members of the mouse family."

Cranberry Ring Can Top Off Holidays

THOSE colorful little berries so much a part of the season can bring new color and zestful flavor to your holiday meals, and this sparkling cranberry ring is a salad treasure for the meal of the year. Little circles of jellied cranberry sauce top the salad ring to make a jeweled setting for the fruit salad filling. It's a colorful ring mold that's meant especially for those festive occasions, it's so simple to make you'll find it a gem of a recipe.

CRANBERRY FLUFF SALAD RING

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1 pound can jellied cranberry sauce, sieved
2 T orange juice
2 T evaporated milk
2 3-oz. pkgs. cream cheese
2/3 cup evaporated milk, chilled
1 T lemon juice
Place gelatin in custard cup. Add cold water. Let stand 2 min.

utes. Place custard cup in pan of boiling water until gelatin dissolves. Add orange juice to the sieved cranberry sauce.

Press cheese through a sieve, beat in the 2 tablespoons milk, then stir in the gelatin. Gradually add the cranberry sauce and chill mixture until it begins to jell. Add lemon juice to chilled milk and beat in cold bowl with cold beater until milk is very stiff.

Fold carefully but quickly into the berry mixture and pour into 1 1/2-quart ring or other mold that has been rinsed with cold water. Chill at least three hours before serving. Unmold and fill center with a colorful combination of well-chilled fresh seasonal and canned fruits. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

HAM - EGGS RANCHERO

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 slices lean ham or smoked pork
4 eggs
1 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms
2 tablespoons savory brown meat sauce
1/4 cup heavy cream
1/4 teaspoon paprika
Melt butter or margarine in large skillet; add ham or smoked pork slices and brown lightly on both sides over moderate heat. Remove to warm serving platter. Break eggs into the same pan. Cover tightly and let cook until whites are just set, about 5 minutes.

Carefully transfer eggs to platter with ham. Pour mushrooms and liquid in can into skillet and evaporate all the moisture by boiling rapidly. Then add meat sauce, cream, and paprika. Heat just to boiling. Pour over eggs and serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

Special Foods For Christmas

FOR your Christmas entertaining, here are two delightful recipes. The stuffed mushrooms can be served as hot canapes before dinner and the parfait is light and delicate and as red as holly.

Stuffed Broiled Mushrooms

6-oz. can broiled mushroom crowns
3-oz. can deviled ham
1/4 teaspoon mustard
1/2 teaspoon grated onion
1/2 teaspoon minced parsley
Drain mushrooms, reserving broth for other use. Scoop out stem ends of mushroom crowns with sharp knife or melon baller. Finely chop stem ends. Combine deviled ham, chopped mushroom stems, mustard, onion and parsley. Stuff mixture back into mushroom crowns.

Arrange in shallow pan to go under broiler. Broil 4 inches from moderate heat in preheated broiling compartment until thoroughly hot, about 5 minutes. Serve as hot canape, or to top scrambled eggs on toast. Makes 4 servings.

Cranberry Parfait

1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg yolk
2 cups milk
2 or 3 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 to 1 1/2 cups cranberry jelly
1/2 cup cream, whipped
Beat egg white until foamy throughout; add 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, and continue beating with rotary eggbeater until mixture will stand in soft peaks.

Set aside. Mix egg yolk with about 1/4 cup of the milk in saucepan. Add 2 or 3 tablespoons sugar, salt, tapioca and remaining milk. Place over medium heat. Cook until mixture comes to a boil, stirring constantly — this takes 5 to 8 minutes. Pour small amount of hot tapioca mixture gradually on beaten egg white, blending well.

Then quickly add the remaining mixture, stirring constantly. (The hotter the tapioca and the faster it is blended in, the thicker and fluffier the pudding will be). Add vanilla.

Cool, stirring once after 15 to 20 minutes. Chill. Serve the tapioca cream and cranberry sauce layered in parfait glasses. (Make 5 layers, beginning with cranberry sauce). Top with the whipped cream. Makes 6-8 servings.
